n Act of Respect Toward Akron's Oldest Grocer.

Under the auspices of the Akron Frocery Association an excellent banuet was served at Tip Top hall Tueslay evening. The banquet was particcleverly served by members of Protection Hive, L. O. T. M.

The object of the banquet was to bring the grocers and their clerks together for a social time, and an excellent program of an instructive and entertaining nature was presented. After chairs had been tipped and cigars lighted, the assemblage was called to order by J. T. Diehm, president of the association, who, after a few introductory remarks, introduced the toastmaster, Clint W. Kline. As toastmaster, Mr. Kline was successful, his pleasantries and droll "hits" at the speakers creating considerable jollity.

W. E. Godfrey, editor of the Ohio Merchant, of Cleveland, was the first speaker. He talked on "Organization," declaring it to be desirable and necessary to the better conducting and profitable management of grocery stores. I. Reader read a paper on "Cash Discounts." "An Akron Grocer in an Orange Grove," was the subject of an interesting talk by D. F. Berger. A. C. Bachtel discussed "Cash and Credit," During his remarks, he referred to J. B. Houghton, as having been in the grocery business longer than any other grocer in Akron. He has been in the business in this city for 38 years. Mr Houghton was on the program for remarks, but was unable to be present. In acquiescence with a suggestion pre sented by Mr. Bachtel, all present rose to their feet in expression of regard to Mr. Houghton, "The Relation of Akron Consumers to Akron Grocers," was discussed by B. C. Merrick.

The following named persons constituted the committee on arrangements: J. T. Diehm, Clint W. Kline, S. S. Haynes, George Hans and Alfred L. Farrand.

Music was furnished by Prof. Sid Morey's orchestra.

Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination, nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture, and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Mensiruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoen stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you. Try it!

Rockford, Tenn., August 16, 1899.

I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bed-fast for six months. I paid $52, to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get hold of a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, and decided to try your treatment adays after I commenced taking Wine of Cardul and Black-Draught, I could walk across my room and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors and even my brothers and sisters said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.

Miss S. E. GARLEN.
